

No. Rule / P-1615 / 91

CIRCULAR

This has reference to the High Court Circular No. P.1615/91, dated 12.08.1999. in the matter of giving preference to the cases wherein one of the parties is of advanced age who has crossed 65 years of age.

The Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Judges after reconsidering the issue, have now directed that precedence be given by the Courts for hearing and final disposal of the cases wherein one of the parties has attained the age of sixty years or above . However, the Courts may grant such indulgence on written request made in that behalf.

This circular shall be applicable to the High Court and its Benches as well as Courts subordinate to it.
